HAROLD KATZ

Owner

When Harold Katz first purchased the 76ers in July 1981, he fulfilled the goal of a true sports fanatic. He had been a 76ers fan for many years and he lived and died by the team's successes and failures. As sole owner of the local NBA franchise, his ambition was twofold, first, to win the world championship (which he did in 1982-83), and secondly, to transform the ball club into a profitable organization (which the club has been for the past three years). Katz has been a great success in private industry. In 1972 he developed a weight loss program in Willow Grove, PA, which grew into the successful nationwide franchising company known as Nutri/Systems Inc. He sold his interests in the diet firm three years ago and is currently pursuing other endeavors. His first interest, however, is basketball and his life long pursuit of the business grows stronger every day. Katz was born May 5, 1937 and was attending high school when his father passed away. He was given the responsibility of operating the family grocery business, which is where he acquired his first sales, and marketing experience. Eventually, he turned to other endeavors to develop his entrepreneurial skills, working as a life insurance salesman for several years prior to becoming self-employed in marketing and advertising ventures until he established his weight loss firm. While involved with these different facets of business, Katz remained a loyal season ticket holder for many years with the 76ers, hoping someday to own Philadelphia's professional basketball team. As his business life prospered, Katz' dream became reality and on July 15, 1981 he purchased the 76ers from Eugene Dixon. From that first day Katz worked relentlessly at obtaining something that eluded the 76ers since 1967, an NBA championship. The championship finally returned during the 1982-83 season as Katz, the team, the city, and its fans, flourished in the glow of the championship. This was not the result of heedless spending, with a win-at-all-cost attitude. With Katz' sharp business mind, the 76ers financial outcome has steadily increased with the team showing a profit for the past three years. Katz, active in numerous charitable and philanthropic concerns, resides in Huntingdon Valley, PA, with his wife Peggy and their children.

DAVID KATZ

Vice President and Director of Marketing

Katz accepted his new position of vice president and director of marketing in August 1989. Prior to his new position, Katz was the director of marketing for the ball club. He began his career with the 76ers as the director of community relations in 1986-87, handling all player appearances and social function planning. Katz is single and resides in Northampton Township, PA.

JOHN NASH
GENERAL MANAGER

Nash has been the 76ers' general manager since June 25, 1986, becoming only the fourth general manager in 76ers history. He has been involved in almost every facet of the club, overseeing marketing, ticket, and group sales, while also being involved in 76ers radio and television broadcasts. Nash returned to the 76ers on July 28, 1981 as the team's assistant general manager and business manager. He joined the 76ers following a six year stint as executive secretary of the Philadelphia Big Five and is largely responsible for the improvements of this college foundation. His experience also includes various front office posts with Flyers, Eagles, Blazers, Spectrum, and Atlantic City Race Course. In his tenure with the ball club Nash has been employed in the ticket office and as group sales manager in addition to business manager and general manager. John is a graduate of St. Joseph's University. He has six children and resides in Gradyville, PA with his wife, the former Ann Raley.

GERRY RYAN
BUSINESS MANAGER

Ryan was named as the 76ers' business manager on July 31, 1987. He is responsible for the day-to-day business activities of the ball club,including the front office and staff, marketing, promotions, and public relations. He joined the 76ers' staff in 1980 as ticket manager, a position that he held until his promotion to business manager. Prior to joining the 76ers Ryan was employed by the Spectrum for five years. He is a graduate of St. Joseph's University, where he majored in business management. Born May 3, 1953, Ryan resides in Havertown with his wife Jane and their four children.

JIM LYNAM
HEAD COACH

Lynam finished his first full season as the Sixers head coach this past season. He guided the club to a 46-36 record, second best in the Atlantic Division and a berth in the playoffs. Lynam became the Philadelphia 76ers ninth head coach on February 8, 1988 (13th in the history of the franchise) when he replaced Matt Guokas. Lynam managed to guide the 1987-88 injury plagued club to a 16-23 mark for the remainder of the campaign. Referring to Lynam as, "A great communicator and motivator," the 76ers gave Lynam a vote of confidence on May 3, 1988 when they extended his contract for three more seasons. Lynam joined the 76ers organization on June 17, 1985 when he was named assistant coach, filling the spot vacated when Matt Guokas was elevated to the head coaching position. Lynam went on to become Guokas' senior aid and right hand man. He directed the 76ers' Princeton Summer League squads in 1985 and 1986. Lynam joined the 76ers with four years of professional coaching experience. He served as an assistant for his former mentor, Jack Ramsay, in Portland in 1981-82, and then head coach of the San Diego/Los Angeles Clippers from 1983 to 1985. In his first season with the Clippers he posted a mark of 30-52, and was replaced the following season, 61 games into that season with a 22-39 record. His college head coaching career covered 10 seasons (158-118 record with a .572 winning percentage). His career included two seasons at Fairfield University (23-29), five seasons at American University (70-61), and three at St. Joseph's University (65-28). Lynam's .699 winning percentage at St. Joseph's is the second best in school history, behind only Jack Ramsay. During his stint with the Hawks, they made two NIT appearances and were Mid-East runner-up in the 1981 NCAA Basketball Tournament following a shocking last second upset of top ranked DePaul. Lynam played three seasons at St. Joseph's under Ramsay and averaged 12.2 points per game. A member of the St. Joseph's and Philadelphia Big Five Hall of Fames, Lynam was born September 15, 1941 and currently resides in Media with his wife Kay and their three children.

He worked as a shooting coach at the University of Maryland later that year. He joined the Terps midway through the 1987-88 season when the team was shooting 61 percent from the free throw line and by season's end, had improved the team's percentage to 73 percent. Braman can lay claim to being one of the deadliest shooters of the game. Once, he made 738 consecutive free throws and also made 246 of 250 shots from college three-point distance. His shooting has been featured on WTBS in February 1989. Braman was an All-American guard at Springbrook HS in Silver Spring, MD, before starring at East Carolina University in Greenville, NC. LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with the NBA policy, the 76ers locker room will be open to the media 45 minutes prior to the start of the game, and 10 minutes after the game has been completed. Only persons possessing a media credential will be admitted to the locker room.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS: Game notes will be available in the press room of the Spectrum one hour prior to tip-off. We will make every attempt to get visiting media members their notes earlier in the day at their hotel. If you are not staying with the team, please give your hotel location to the public relations office to allow prompt routing of notes. Play-by-play, halftime and final boxes will be distributed to all media members.

FAX AND TELEPHONE SERVICE: The 76ers have a limited number of telephones available to working press members. If you need a telephone line contact the public relations office. There is one telephone at each press table on the court. Access numbers are available through the 76ers public relations office. The 76ers provide complimentary fax service for all working media members. Final boxscores are dispersed immediately following the game. Please see someone from the public relations staff to make the necessary arrangements.

76ers RADIO AND TELEVISION COVERAGE

Radio: The Philadelphia radio home of the 76ers, and the flagship station of the Philadelphia 76ers Radio Network, is 610-WIP all sports radio.

Television: For the seventh straight season, WPHL TV-17 will be broadcasting all Sixer road games, and since its inception in 1976, PRISM has covered all the Sixer home games.

GROUP SALES: As always, the Sixers offer great discounts for group sales. Unless otherwise noted, all games at the Spectrum will be available for group rates. Organizations must have at least 25 members to qualify for group discounts. Additional information pertaining to group sales is available by calling the group sales office at (215) 339-7606.

76ers' RADIO AND TV COVERAGE

JON GUREVITCH

610 WIP Play-By-Play Announcer

Having joined the Sixers four seasons ago as the radio voice of the 76ers, Gurevitch quickly became a fan favorite because of his lightning quick delivery and genuine enthusiasm for basketball. His experience includes being morning sportscaster on WCTC in New Brunswick from 1980 to 1985. In addition, Gurevitch did play-by-play for three seasons calling the broadcasts of Rutgers football and basketball. He also did play-by-play for football and basketball at Syracuse University where he was a 1980 graduate.

NEIL FUNK

WPHL TV-17 Play-By-Play

Neil Funk begins his third season doing play-by-play for 76er road games on WPHL. Funk first came to Philadelphia in 1976-77 for one season when he broadcast 76ers basketball on WIBG radio. The following season, he ventured west to broadcast for the Kansas City Kings. He returned to Philadelphia in 1982 where he broadcast the Sixers games on WPHL TV-17 and WFIL radio until 1985. The following two seasons he did play-by-play for the New Jersey Nets on WNBC and WNEW before returning to Philadelphia in 1987. Funk began his career in 1971 broadcasting Illinois University basketball and football on WITY radio and also found time to call the Danville Warrior games (Milwaukee Brewer farm club) on the same station.

STEVE MIX

WPHL TV-17 Color Commentary

Steve Mix returns for his second full season analyzing all away games on WPHL TV-17. Mix brings intriguing insights to the game of basketball because of his past experience playing in the pro ranks. Previous experience in broadcasting includes brief stints doing color for the University of Toledo basketball games on WSPD TV-13 and the Detroit Pistons on WKBD TV-50. Mix should be familiar to 76er fans, as well he should be. He played with the 76ers for nine seasons starting in 1973-74 and has his name etched in many different team records.

JIM BARNIAK

PRISM Cable Play-By-Play

Jim Barniak starts his 11th season calling the shots for all 76er home games on PRISM. In fact, he has been with PRISM since its inception in 1976, working in a part-time capacity the first two years. In 1978, Barniak was named the cable network's sports director and the following season started his current reign as play-by-play announcer. In his tenure at PRISM, Barniak's broadcast partners have included Fred Carter, Doug Collins, Andy Musser, Chuck Daly, Gene Shue, Hubie Brown and Matt Guokas. Noted as a talented sportswriter, Barniak had worked earlier in his career as a sports columnist for the Philadelphia Bulletin from 1969-78.

JACK RAMSAY

PRISM Cable Color Commentary

After a long absence, Jack Ramsay has returned to Philadelphia. But, rather than being seen on the sidelines, he'll be in the broadcast booth analyzing the plays for all home games on PRISM. As the NBA's second all-time winningest coach, Ramsay has been around the pro circuit long enough to know just about everyone who ever played in the NBA. His past ties with the 76ers include stints as the team's general manager and as head coach (1968-72). Other NBA team's that Ramsay has piloted include the Buffalo Braves, Portland Trail Blazers and most recently the Indiana Pacers. His talents are not limited to coaching by any means. He is also an author, a teacher and a top notch triathlete.

Marc Zumoff continues to anchor the halftime report, as well as the post-game star of the game interviews for all home games on PRISM.

OUR STAFF

We would like to thank Ron Pollack, who utilized one of his R & S software computers to provide many of the statistical tables contained in this book. Ron is the originator of the 76ers award-winning play by play sheets distributed at the Sixers home games to the media. PARISH TOPS NBA'S 20-20 CLUB

Robert Parish topped the NBA's 20-20 club last year in posting 20 or more points and rebounds in the same game. He did it five times compared to the 6 times Akeem Olajuwon did it in 1987-88 and the 11 times Charles Barkley did it in 1986-87. Olajuwon and Barkley each did it 4 times. Moses Malone 3 times and Ken Norman, Benoit Benjamin, Herb Williams, Karl Malone, Patrick Ewing, Bill Laimbeer, Dennis Rodman, Roy Tarpley, James Donaldson, Jerome Kersey, LaSalle Thompson, and Terry Cummings one each. Thus 16 players did it 28 times compared to 12 who did it 31 times in 1987-88. Three other players made the 20-20 club by hitting 20 points and assists in a game. Magic Johnson did it 3 times, and Kevin Johnson and John Stockton twice each.

BARKLEY AGAIN LEAGUE'S BEST 2 PT. FG SHOOTER 1988-89

Many folks like Pat Riley claim the NBA's field goal percentage is misleading because it combines 2 and 3 pt. attempts. So we took the 79 players who attempted 50 or more 3 pt. field goals and subtracted these attempts from their overall totals to produce their 2 point field goal average. No. 1 for the fourth straight year was Charles Barkley with a 63.6 average, the leader by 7.5 points over John Stockton (56.1), Michael Jordan (55.3), Magic Johnson (54.8) and Mark Price (54.8) followed. The worst of the group was Russ Schoene (38.9) followed by Manute Bol (42.3) and Robert Reid (43.2). All but one player had a better average minus the 3-pointers. The exception was Jon Sundvold whose average dropped 1.1 (45.5 to 44.4) without the 3 pointers. The biggest increase was achieved by Brad Davis, going from 48.3 overall to 54.5 for just 2 pointers. Other increases were by Michael Adams, 43.3 to 49.2 and Trent Tucker 45.4 to 51.2.

SIXER'S LEADS AND DEFICITS 1988-89

An analysis of the 76ers log last year shows that there were five games last season when the Sixers never had a lead (11/19 at New York, 12/28 at LA Lakers, 1/31 and 4/11 at Cleveland and 4/5 at Atlanta). Conversely there were seven games in which foes never had a lead (12/17 vs. Utah, 12/25 & 4/23 vs. Washington, 3/9 vs. Sacramento, 3/24 vs. San Antonio, 4/7 at Charlotte and 4/20 at New Jersey). The biggest Sixers lead of the season was 33 pts. (106-73) in the third period vs. Denver 12/7. They also had a 31-point lead at Miami (139-108) in 4th per. 2/22 and leads in the twenties on 11 other occasions. Conversely the Sixers worse deficit was 50 pts. (130-80) in the 4th period of 4/7 game at Atlanta. They also had a 33 point deficit (135-102) in the 4th quarter of 11/19 game at NY as well as 11 other games in which they had disadvantages in the 20 point realm.

POSITION BREAKDOWN OF 1988-89 PLAYERS

There were 353 players in the NBA last season and by position they broke down to 131 guards, 117 forwards, and 59 centers. There also were 18 forward-centers, 16 guard-forwards, 7 center-forwards, and 5 forward-guards.

DOUBLE FIGURE SCORING

Eight players, twice as many as last season, were able to score double figures in every game they played during the 1988-89 season, led by Alex English of Denver and Dale Ellis of Seattle who were 82 of 82. Michael Jordan extended his streak of scoring double figures to 255 games. Michael has scored double figures every game over the last three seasons, plus the final 10 games of the 1985-86 season, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. That is the longest current streak. Kevin McHale is second with 238 straight games. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record is 787 straight.

8 POST BETTER FIELD GOAL % THAN FREE THROW %

Eight players in the NBA in 1988-89 had better field goal percentages than free throw percentages and the only repeater from 1987-88 was Larry Smith of Golden State. He was 55.2 from the field and 31.0 at the free throw line. He started the most games (78) of the eight and was second to Mark West of Phoenix in games played (80) and minutes played (1897). West was 65.3 from the field and 53.5 at the line while playing all 82 games and 2019 minutes. Chris Dudley (43.5, 36.4) played 544 minutes and Jerome Lane (42.6, 38.4) 550 minutes. The others who had limited playing time were Otis Birdsong (50.0, 0.0), Sedric Toney (20.0, 0.0), Ron Cavenall (66.7, 40.0) and Ken Bannister (61.1, 56.6).

CALIFORNIA HIGH SCHOOLS SERVE AS NBA'S TOP BREEDER

California high schools continued to lead in providing NBA material in 1988-89. The state's high schools produced 46 of the 353 players in the league last year and also had a league high of 40 different schools. Four players came from Dunbar of Baltimore (David Wingate, Reggie Lewis, Reggie Williams, and Tyrone Bogues). DeMatha of Hyattsville, MD, Northwestern of Detroit and Westinghouse of Chicago each have three products, while 17 other schools had two representatives. Philly had 3 from Roman, Frankford and Engineering and Sciences.

FEERICK ONLY MAN TO LEAD LEAGUE IN FG% AND FT%

Bob Feerick, of the old Washington Caps, did something in 1947-48 that no other player has accomplished, topping the circuit in field goal percentage (34.0) and free throw percentage (78.8) the same season. Neither percentage would rank him very high today.

HISTORY OF NBA POINT DIFFERENTIAL

The chart below shows the history of the point differential for all 25,145 regular season games played in the NBA since its origin in the 1946-47 season. It shows the number of times each point difference (margin of victory) occurred and also what percentage of all games played, ended with that difference, as researched by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows that at least one game ended in a difference from 1 through 56 and also that a two point difference has occurred the most times (1827). There have been 18 games with point differences in the 50's and 60's including the March 19, 1972 game in which the LA Lakers beat Golden State 162-99 for the largest margin of victory (63 points) in NBA history. More than one of every four games are decided by four points or less and nearly 49 percent of all games end with a margin of eight points or less.

ONLY 5 CURRENT COACHES WON COACH OF YEAR LAURELS

Of the current 27 coaches, only four have won NBA Coach of the Year laurels. Don Nelson in 1982-83 and 1984-85; Mike Fratello in 1985-86; Cotton Fitzsimmons in 1978-79 and 1988-89; Bill Fitch in 1975-76 and 1979-80; and Doug Moe in 1987-88 comprise the quintet. None of them won the NBA titles the year they were selected. The only 3 coaches to win Coach of the Year the same year they won the NBA title were Bill Sharman, Lakers, 1971-72; Red Holzman, New York, 1969-70 and Red Auerbach, Boston, 1964-65.

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, New Jersey, won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on August 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However, his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

NICKNAMES OF DEFUNCT TEAMS

There have been many novel nicknames of NBA teams. Here are those of defunct teams: Anderson (Ind.) Packers; Chicago Stags, Zephyrs and Packers; Cleveland Rebels; Detroit Falcons; Indianapolis Jets and Olympians; Pittsburgh Ironmen; Providence Steamrollers; Cincinnati and Rochester Royals; Sheboygan (Wis.) Redskins; Toronto Huskies and Waterloo (Iowa) Hawks.

HISTORY OF THE 76ers

Professional basketball in its modern phase has had two stages in this city. The first section comprised the career of the Warriors between 1946 and 1962 and saw two titles come here — 1947 when the immortal Joe Fulks hit his heights and 1956 in Tom Gola's rookie season.

The Warriors were transferred to San Francisco after the 1961-62 campaign. Irv Kosloff and the late Ike Richman, however, teamed to purchase the Syracuse Nats in the spring of 1963 and bring the franchise here. The team was renamed 76ers and Dolph Schayes was named coach for the 1963-64 season.

Dolph piloted the team for three seasons and in his final year he steered the 76ers to the Eastern Division title aided by the addition of Wilt Chamberlain who came in January 1965 in a deal with San Francisco. Alex Hannum became the coach in 1966-67 and led the team to a 68-13 record and the NBA title.

Hannum steered the team to its third straight Eastern Division title in 1967-68, and then the Jack Ramsay regime began. Ramsay had been the club's GM during Hannum's two years as coach and when Hannum left after the 1967-68 season, Jack assumed the coaching duties — along with his GM chores. He didn't have Chamberlain who was traded to Los Angeles, but still managed to finish second in the division that year.

Ramsay relinquished the GM role to Don DeJardin just before the start of the 1970-71 season and confined his efforts to coaching for two seasons. For 1972-73 Roy Rubin succeeded Ramsay until the All-Star game break when Kevin Loughery supplanted him. Gene Shue was named coach on June 15, 1973 and started the club's resurgence in the 1973-74 campaign. Pat Williams became the club's GM in August 1974. Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr. purchased the club from Kosloff in May 1976. Julius Erving was secured on October 21, 1976 and the team won the Atlantic Division title and lost in the NBA finals.

On November 4, 1977, Billy Cunningham replaced Shue as coach and led team to Atlantic Division title and to the Eastern Conference finals. In 1979-80 and 1981-82 Billy piloted the team to the NBA finals and in 1982-83 to the NBA championship. Lou Scheinfeld was appointed president of the club on January 30, 1980, and relinquished duties on June 1, 1981. Harold Katz purchased the club July 9, 1981, the sale was approved on Sept. 21 by the NBA and became final on Sept. 24, 1981. Matt Guokas replaced Cunningham as coach on June 14, 1985. John Nash replaced Pat Williams as GM on June 25, 1986. Jim Lynam replaced Guokas as coach Feb. 8, 1988.

LENGTH OF 76ers GAMES 1988-89

The average 76ers home game in 1988-89 took two hours and 7.4 minutes from the opening tapoff to the final buzzer. The first periods averaged 22.6 minutes, the second 25.7, the third 25.5 and the fourth 30.7. The quarters add up to 1 hour 44.5 mins. The remainder of the minutes cover halftime (15.7), between periods (5.8), and overtime. The longest home game vs. New Jersey (2/17) took 2:32 in one extra period and the shortest vs. Denver (12/7) lasted 1:50. The longest quarters (all 4th) lasted 42 minutes vs. Atlanta (4/11), New Jersey (2/17), Detroit (3/11). The shortest quarters of 19 minutes (both 1st) occurred vs. Milwaukee (12/13) and vs. Boston (3/28). Home games in 1988-89 lasted 5,222 minutes, 60 minutes less than 1987-88. The 41 road games lasted 5,102 minutes or an average of 2 hours 4.4 minutes per game. A road game at Sacramento (3/1) lasted 2:57 due to a roof leak that delayed the game 40 minutes in the 4th quarter.

BLACKMAN CURRENT LEADER WITH NO FOULOUTS

Rolando Blackman has played 630 games and has never fouled out for the leadership of all active NBA players who never have fouled out of a game. Other streaks are Jerry Sichting 563, Randy Wittman 417, Steve Colter 377, Craig Ehlo 293, Danny Young 283, John Battle 277, Sam Vincent 245, Michael Adams 240, Jeff Hornacek 240, Jerry Reynolds 231, Pace Mannion 216, Charles A. Jones 201, Dell Curry 194 and Johnny Dawkins 178. However both Colter and Blackman fouled out of a playoff game. Moses Malone has the longest current streak (962 games) of no fouloults having 879 consecutive games in the regular season, 72 playoff games and 11 all-star games since he last fouled out on January 6, 1978. Of course the league record is held by Wilt Chamberlain who played 1045 regular season games, 160 playoff games and 19 all-star games (a total of 1224) without a foulout.

Five NBA teams failed to make the playoffs the year after they were in the championship finals. The 1968-69 Boston team was the only one to win the title and then fail to make the playoffs the following year. The others were St. Louis 1960-61, failing in 1961-62; San Francisco 1963-64, failing in 1964-65 after selling Wilt Chamnberlain to the 76ers, Milwaukee 1973-74, failing in 1974-75; and Phoenix 1975-76, failing in 1976-77.

BARRY OWNS A NOVEL TRIPLE

Rick Barry, current play by play announcer for WTBS, holds the unusual distinction of being the only player to capture scoring titles in the NBA (with San Francisco in 1966-67), ABA (with Oakland in 1968-69), and the NCAA (with the University of Miami in 1964-65).

FUTURE 76ers DRAFT PICKS

In 1990 the Sixers have their own 2nd round draft choice plus Detroit's (Cureton), but must give the lesser of the two to Cleveland (World Free).

SUNDRY RECORDS

The 76ers feat of having seven players averaging double figures is shared by the 1961-62, 1962-63, 1963-64, 1972-73, 1981-82 and 1986-87 teams with other NBA clubs. Atlanta had 8 men in 1974-75, Cleveland in 1981-82, Los Angeles Clippers and New York Knicks in 1985-86 and Houston and Portland in 1986-87 for the NBA record.

JABBAR (NEE ALCINDOR) BEST AT TURNING TEAM AROUND

Since the territorial draft was abolished, the No. 1 draft choices have had varying success in turning teams around. The best was Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul Jabbar) when Milwaukee had a 27-55 record in 1968-69 and then went to 56-26 in Alcindor's first year for a rise of 29. Next best was Elvin Hayes with plus 22. Mychal Thompson has the dubious distinction of being the No. 1 pick to have his team post a worse record, Portland going from 58-24 to 45-37 in his rookie campaign. The only one to win an NBA title was Magic Johnson with a plus 13 in the 1979-80 season.

JORDAN AGAIN TOPS IN OVERALL CONTRIBUTION

To measure a player's overall contributions to his team, someone suggested adding his scoring, rebounding and assist averages and subtracting his turnover average. Under this system for the third straight year Michael Jordan was the leader with 44.99 followed by Charles Barkley 39.8. Larry Bird was the 1985-86 winner. The rest of the top 20 were Magic Johnson 39.6, Karl Malone 38.94, Clyde Drexler 37.65, Akeem Olajuwon 36.74, Fat Lever 34.79, Tom Chambers 34.14, Chris Mullin 33.84, Dominique Wilkins 33.49, Kevin Johnson 32.76, Dale Ellis 31.01, Terry Cummings 30.99, Patrick Ewing 30.98, Kevin McHale 30.42, Moses Malone 30.37, Brad Daugherty 28.82, Terry Porter 28.68 and James Worthy 27.85.

NBA PLAYOFF WINNING MARGINS — 1946-47 THRU 1988-89

There have been 1669 playoff games played since the league's origin in the 1946-47 season. The total point difference of those 1669 games between winner score and loser score adds up to 17,050 points. That's an average of 10.22 points per game according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows the number of times each point difference has occurred in playoff history. As in regular season games, a two point difference has occurred the most times (127). These totals include 10 special playoff games which were played to break ties in regular season final standings and, thus, determine playoff opponents. Three playoff games have concluded with a margin of 50 or more points, including the March 19, 1956 game in which the Minneapolis Lakers beat the St. Louis Hawks, 133-75 for the largest victory margin (58 points) in NBA playoff history.

LOWS SINCE 24-SECOND CLOCK

Since the 24-second clock was introduced into the NBA in 1954-55 season, the lowest scoring regular season game was a 62-57 victory by Boston over Milwaukee on February 27, 1955 at Providence. In this game the floor was atop ice and the moisture came through the boards to make running hazardous. The total of 119 is the low and so are the 57 points by Milwaukee (now the Atlanta Hawks). The lowest scoring playoff game found Ft. Wayne beating Syracuse, 74-71, April 7, 1955 at Indianapolis. The total of 145 points and the 71 by Syracuse are the lows. Buffalo scored 63 vs. Milwaukee Oct. 21, 1972 and Chicago 65 at Phoenix, Mar. 6, 1975; Cleveland 67, Nov. 19, 1977, Dallas 68, Feb. 4, 1981, and Phoenix 68, Mar. 8, 1981, and Indiana 64 at New York, December 10, 1985. The 55 FGA by the 76ers vs. Atlanta on 4/1/88 were lowest since 24-second clock was instituted.

FIELD GOAL ANALYSIS 1988-89

NBA games are won by the team making the most field goals more than 3 out of every 4 times. During the 1988-89 season, the team with the most field goals won 719 times and lost only 235 times for a winning percentage of .754, according to records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. Both teams scored an equal number of field goals on 71 occasions. Four teams (Cleveland, Atlanta, Phoenix and the LA Lakers) won over 90% of games in which they outscored their rivals from the field. The expansion teams (Charlotte and Miami) and San Antonio had the most trouble. Winning games while being outscored from the field is difficult at best, with New York, the LA Lakers and Detroit having some success. San Antonio, Charlotte and the LA Clippers had the most trouble winning with fewer field goals. Complete figures follow:

DOMINANCE INDEX RATINGS

Many years ago Sports Illustrated Magazine devised a Novel Dominance Index with the idea of showing via points how much a team dominated a season. To secure the figure for each team, the championship team's average margin of victory is divided by the margin of victory of the second best team. In some cases, the team with the best win and loss record didn't have the best margin of victory. All this deals with the regular season action and, naturally, there are many cases where the team with the best regular season record failed to win the playoffs. The best team according to this system is the 1955-56 Warriors which had a 4.3 victory margin against an 0.7 differential for nex' best Boston. The best margin of victory was 12.3 for Los Angeles in 1971-72.

LENGTH OF NBA'S 1988-89 GAMES

This chart shows how long it took to play the league's 1025 games in the 1988-89 season. For each team it shows the total minutes of its games, home, away and overall; the length of a game broken down into hours (1:55.9 means 1 hr. 55.9 mins.) and the fastest and slowest games each team played. The chart shows Cleveland had the fastest games on its home court (2:02.7), Charlotte the fastest away (2:03.3) and Cleveland overall (2:04.1). New York was the slowest team at home (2:14.4), away (2:16.4) and overall (2:15.4). A two overtime game (Indiana at Miami) was the longest game (3:07), while the fastest game of 1:47 was Chicago at Sacramento. For the trivia fans adding all the 1025 games together would give you a total of 2207 hours and 32 minutes. The league average was 2:09.2 compared to 2:07.4 in 1987-88, 2:08.1 in 1986-87 and 2:07.2 in 1985-86.

ALL-TIME ANALYSIS OF NBA PLAYERS

There have been 2168 different players who have appeared in at least one league game, since the NBA began in the 1946-47 season. A thorough analysis of their careers has been done by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The study turns up some interesting facts. The 2168 players have played a total of 8399 seasons which averages 3.87 years per player. They have played a total of 495,430 games, which averages 228.52 games per career. A total of 5,334,439 points have been scored in NBA history which averages 2460.54 points per career. Thus, the average NBA career spans almost 3 9/10 seasons, 228 games and 2460 points. During the 1988-89 season, 353 players performed in at least one NBA game, including 77 rookies playing their first season in the league.

A WILT RECORD THAT STILL STANDS

Everyone is familiar with the league record 100 points that Wilt Chamberlain scored in 1962 versus the Knicks, but it is not as widely known that he also holds the league record for assists (21) by a center. He achieved this figure Feb. 2, 1968 vs. Detroit. Maurice Cheeks equalled that figure to tie Wilt for the club mark on Oct. 30, 1982 vs. the Nets, but of course Cheeks is a guard.

ARCHIBALD'S UNIQUE FEAT

Nate (Tiny) Archibald is the only NBA player ever to lead the league in scoring and assists in the same season, averaging 33.9 points and 11.4 assists in 1972-73.

Boston has the league mark of 40-1 set in 1985-86 and the No. 2 mark of 39-2 in 1986-87.)

7 GET MORE OFFENSIVE REBOUNDS THAN DEFENSIVE

Seven players, none a normal starter, finished the 1988-89 season with more offensive rebounds than defensive rebounds. Ledell Eackles (1459 minutes) led the substitute group with 100 offensive to 80 defensive. Ron Grandison (528 minutes) was only other player with over 500 minutes to turn the trick, 47 to 45. Players with scanty time who did it were Ralph Lewis, 35 to 26, Jose Ortiz, 30 to 28, Clinton Wheeler, 17 to 14, Orlando Graham, 8 to 3, and Winston Crite, 1 to 0.

ELLIS AND TRAPP CLAIM UNIQUE DISTINCTION

Both men played on the Los Angeles Lakers 1971-72 team that posted a 69-13 record including 33 straight wins en route to the NBA title. They also played for the 1972-73 76ers squad that compiled a 9-73 mark, the lowest in history.

ASSISTS ANALYSIS 1988-89

What it takes to win games in the NBA are good shots and the ability to get the ball to the right player, in the right place, and at the right time can usually result in a good shot. Recording more assists in a game than the other team results in a win more than 7 of every 10 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan, show that the team with the most assists won 700 times and lost only 282 times for a percentage of .713. There were 43 games in which both teams recorded an equal number of assists. New York, Phoenix and Atlanta compiled the best record in this department of play and were each over 90%, while Miami, Charlotte and the LA Clippers experienced the most trouble. Winning games while recording fewer assists was a very difficult task. Detroit was the only team that could win over half of those games. Charlotte, San Antonio and Miami had the most trouble winning with fewer assists. Complete figures follow:

REBOUNDING ANALYSIS 1988-89

Rebounding is one of the more important elements of basketball in the NBA where the winning team out-rebounds the loser nearly 2 out of every 3 games. The team with more rebounds won 644 times and lost 342 times for a percentage of .653, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. There were 39 games in which both teams had an equal number of rebounds. The best percentages belonged to Cleveland, Detroit and the LA Lakers. Miami, San Antonio and the LA Clippers had the most trouble winning games when securing more rebounds. Winning games while being out-rebounded is a difficult task with only 5 teams (Detroit, Phoenix, Cleveland, Atlanta and the LA Lakers) able to win over half of those games. Having the most trouble winning when out-rebounded were Sacramento, Miami and San Antonio. Complete records follow:

SUNDRY RECORDS

Pat Riley, K.C. Jones and Bill Russell are the only three individuals who have played in the NCAA's championship game and also coached an NBA champion. Russell and Jones played together for San Francisco U and coached the Boston Celtics to the NBA title. Riley played at Kentucky and, of course, coached the Los Angeles Lakers.

RODGERS, McMAHON, KILLILEA LEAD ASSISTANTS IN SERVICE

An analysis of the longevity rates of assistant coaches from 1972-73 to 1988-89 shows in that 17 year period there have been 554 assistant coaching jobs occupied by 185 different individuals for an average career of 3.0 seasons. The 1972-73 season was the first in which assistant coaches totals reached double figures for the league (14). The previous year there were only 8 as the pre-1970 trend either was no assistant coach or at most one. Nowadays some teams have as many as three. The leaders for this period are Jim Rodgers, John Killilea and the late Jack McMahon each with 15 years. Other high totals are Bernie Bickerstaff, Al Bianchi, Bill Bertka and Frank Hamblen 12 each.

JORDAN AND MAGIC TOP PLAYER PRODUCTION RATINGS

One of the systems utilized in the NBA to determine a player's worth gives credits and minuses to players in 11 different categories. A player gets 20 points for a field goal, defensive rebound or an assist; 15 points for an offensive rebound, steal or blocked shot, and 10 points for a 3-point field goal or a free throw made. On the other hand he gets minus 20 for a turnover, and minus 10 for either a free throw missed or a field goal missed. You can add the points for each player in the 1988-89 season and rate them three ways — total points, points per game, and points per 1 minute played (minimum 200 minutes). Below are the top 10 in each category and bottom 10 in minutes played.

NBA WINNING MARGINS — 1988-89

The average margin of victory went up during the 1988-89 season after a one year decline last season. The margin rose to 11.83 points, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The 11.83 average is the highest since the 12.20 average during the 1971-72 season. The total margin of victory for all 1025 regular season games added up to 12,125 points. A 55 point margin was the largest of the season. More than ¼ of all games had a difference of 5 points or less and just over ½ had a margin of 10 points or less. This season, there were 47 games with a margin of 30 or more points, up from 35 last year. The average margin of victory usually goes up in seasons when new expansion teams are added to the league.

JORDAN NO. 1 IN POINT PRODUCTION 1988-89

Someone suggested that the MVP is the one who is responsible for the most points in a game. A player would get 2 points for each assist. Then add all the points he scored to the points for assists and divide the total by the number of games he played to get his average points produced a game. Under this system Michael Jordan won for 2nd straight year. Magic Johnson won the previous two years.

WINNING WAYS — 1988-89

As has been the case in previous years, it is most important to get a good start in an NBA game and also have a strong finish. The team which leads at the end of the first quarter won almost 71% of the time, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart below shows which teams were best and which were not, at winning after leading at the end of one period. Detroit, New York and Milwaukee were best at winning games which they were trailing at the end of the first quarter, while Miami, New Jersey and San Antonio had the most trouble coming back after falling behind early. Winning the fourth quarter produced a victory 67% of the time. The chart below shows those results. The percentage could have been higher but on some occasions the winner had a solid lead entering the final quarter and turned the game over to its bench to finish. That point is illustrated by the fact that Detroit, the LA Lakers and Utah each won 19 or more games in which they lost the final quarter. The playoffs were similar to the regular NBA season. The winning team won the first quarter over 67% of the time and won the fourth quarter over 64% of the time. The last quarter percentage could perhaps have been even higher, but on 12 occasions the winner had a solid lead entering the final quarter and coasted a bit. The totals follow:

Regular Season (1025 games)

	1st Quarter		4th Quarter
